The AC Nuevo Portil Golf Hotel is a colonial-style hotel set on the 18-hole Nuevo Portil golf course. The neo-colonial style of the establishment is integrated harmoniously into the natural environment resulting in a perfect combination between architecture and nature. From the terraces, you get stunning views of both the Atlantic Ocean and the golf course in New Portil.

The restaurant, which has one of the best views of the Nuevo Portil golf course, offers a suggestive and carefully thought out menu prepared with local products in a traditional style, although with a light innovative touch. The exclusive design in colonial style makes the restaurant the perfect place in which to enjoy the creative desserts and the select wine list.

Nuevo Portil Golf Course

This new Andalusian golf course designed by Alfonso Viador and opened in 2002 features wide fairways, gentle greens and several doglegs. The slopes on the course are gentle, making it an easy walking course. The opening hole, a tight par 5 ensures you concentrate on keeping your ball straight and if you manage that you still have to carry water to get onto the green.

The course demands careful thought and shot selection along its narrow fairways. There is a splendid view of the Huelva coastline, with its enormous beaches, dunes, the sea and a wood full of pines and ancient juniper trees. Situated 18km from Huelva and 90 km from Seville, the club is surrounded by 11,000 hectares of municipal pine forest and overlooks the Natural Park of Marismas del Piedras and Flecha de El Rompido.
